

THE WESTIN
GRANDE SUKHUMVIT
BANGKOK

Jacob's Creek Chardonnay,
South Australia
2008

Rich peach and melon flavours with complex toasty oak and a fresh crisp finish. Still rich, ripe and buttery, a surprisingly elegant thread of lime acidity beneath the tropical fruit and well-integrated smoky oak.

Peter Lehman, Semillon/Chardonnay,
Barossa, Australia
2006

84% Semillon and 16% Chardonnay. This wine has the aromas of lemon flower and fresh pear, with a palate of citric flavours from the Semillon and ripe apples in the mid palate from the Chardonnay. The Artist on this label is Eva Froncek.

Castello Banfi
Brunello di Montalcino DOCG,
Italy 2004

Very deep color with garnet hints. Complex and sweet on the nose with delicate notes of jam, well integrated with plum and ripened cherry, as well as more spicy and typical notes of liquorice, tobacco and leather. Powerful structure, characterized by soft and sweet tannins.

Terrazas Reserva Malbec,
Mendoza, Argentina
2006

Full-bodied with a great structure, this wine stands out for its volume and silky mouth-feel. It is complex, boasting smooth, well-rounded tannins that give way to a staggeringly long and lingering finish.

Guigal Cote Rotie Ampuis,
France 2001

Super ripe aromas of pepper, chocolate and menthol. Wonderfully deep flavors of cherries and spice. A very fresh, elegant with compelling sweetness but also excellent backbone.
Really coats the palate on the very long aftertaste, finishing with strong spiciness and great lift.

Castello Banfi SummuS,
Sant 'Antimo DOC,
Italy 2005

Intense red color, fresh with fruity notes of cherry and prunes, together with more complex and spicy hints of liquorices, coffee and tobacco. A wine of great structure, defined by its sweet tannin.
