Dear Mr Tibbitts

Honorary Fellowship (International Hospitality Management) in the School of Hotel and Tourism Management

I would like to thank you, on behalf of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, for accepting our invitation to serve as an Honorary Fellow (International Hospitality Management) in our School of Hotel and Tourism Management from 1 January 2005 to 31 December 2007.

The general aim of our Honorary Fellowship scheme is to enable the University to seek expert advice from renowned scholars in other institutions or eminent practitioners in related professions.

We are confident that with your vast experience and expert knowledge, the School of Hotel and Tourism Management will be able to benefit immensely from your valuable advice as Honorary Fellow (International Hospitality Management) to the School's development activities including student career development and executive training programmes.

Yours sincerely

Ir Prof. Ko Jan-ming
Vice President (Research Development)
