What is the Color of Your True Love's Wine?

真爱之酒的颜色？

And so what is the color of your True Love's wine? Is it red, white, pink, golden or sparkling? If you know her perfume, her pleasures, her style, what makes her happy, you should know the answer without giving it a second thought. For premium wine is the magical, romantic elixir that celebrates the union of our Souls whenever we come together as One. So knowing your True Love's favorite wine or wines is as important as remembering her birthday, holding the door for her or telling her that you love her.

We know that red is by far the favorite color of wine in China, for in the words of the China's epic, present day poet and sooth through the ages, Red Owl "Red is the color of the revolution, of the Yangtze and the Pearl Rivers, the rise of the people for the people and the heart that longs to be united with the beloved." And of course, "Red wine is the one that flows through our veins whether near or far from the one we love. It is our Soul's message that all is not lost on a glass of crimson as sacred as eternity's gentle touch. For it is nature's sweetest bliss as when our lips become one, whether an hour, a day, a week or a month that we have been apart. It is the harmony of all our senses."

If it is white wine that she fancies most, celebrate life and love with her by sharing a glass of her favorite white, for nothing is more sincere than cherishing the choices of others. And white wines are perfect for many fish and poultry dishes; or simply quaffing as is by the glass on a lazy summer's day. If it is pink wine, know that pink, blush or Rose wines (including "White Zinfandel from California) go well with most foods, as does Champagne. And one of the fastest growing categories are rose-blush wines from around the world, which are particularly enjoyed by women, because they have that fragrant, berry sweetness on the "after taste", which sets them apart from all others. If golden wines are her passion, she may appreciate aged Chablis from France; or perhaps dessert wines from wherever late harvest wines are cultivated, the most famous being from France.

And if sparkling wine is per pleasure, should your pocketbook support Champagne from Champagne, there can be no other sparkling that can compare; however, sparkling wine from Italy, Prosecco; or Spain, Cava, or California, New Zealand, South Africa, Australia and wherever it is cultivated is a very fine alternative, and always at a very affordable price. And any of these sparkling wines, as I earlier declared, go well with just about every food under the sun, because the carbon dioxide (CO2) in all wines sparkling offsets the characteristics of many foods that would otherwise overpower most still wines, while the fruit in the Champagne or sparkling wine adds just the right dry or sweet finishing touch on the palate.

And once again to remember the illustrious, romantic prose of Red Owl on the orgasmic role of premium red wines for all romantic encounters "When your red wine takes you to that place, that place that will live forever in your heart of hearts, you are in fact, one with a great glass of wine and you will have more. If you are with your beloved, there can be no better circumstance: Yet if apart from her, your red wine unites your Souls from every previous enchanted moment you were ever together; and wherever in the world your other may be, whether near or far, she is with you, and you with she." So, no matter the color of your True Love's wine, let it be premium and let it be among the finest examples of her favorite color. For when there is perfection on both your palates, ecstasy is but a tip toe away: Seize the day, shower her with unbridled passion and drink together of the gifts of the gods until that magic moment, when you must let go of all but each other and together experience your final release, as you effortlessly pass through the golden gates of Nirvana. I am Red Owl, ever vigilant, over & out.

你的真爱之酒是什么颜色？红色？白色？金色？还是起泡的颜色？如果你熟悉她的香水、喜乐、风格和兴趣，那么答案自会揭晓。因为优质的葡萄酒就像具有魔力的、浪漫的万能药，庆祝灵魂的结合与相伴。所以，了解她对葡萄酒的喜好与牢记她的生日、为她守候和表达爱意同样重要。

如果她钟爱白葡萄酒，不妨共饮一杯她的最爱。白葡萄酒百搭于各种鱼类、家禽类菜肴，也可在一个惬意午后畅快豪饮。如果喜欢粉色的酒，确认是粉红、深红抑或桃红（包括“加州的白仙粉黛”），他们都像香槟一样，适合搭配大部分美食。其中，增长最快的种类是产自世界各地的桃红葡萄酒，凭借其回味中独特的浆果香甜，尤其受到女士的青睐。如果金色葡萄酒是她的最爱，不妨试一下产自法国的陈年夏布利，或是用晚收葡萄酿造的甜酒，最著名的来自法国。

如果她喜欢起泡酒，经济条件支持的情况下，香槟是最好的选择。但是，意大利的普洛赛克、西班牙的卡瓦，产自加州、新西兰、南非、澳大利亚或其它地区的起泡酒也是不错的选项，性价比高。无论选择哪款起泡酒，都与食物百搭和谐，因为二氧化碳能更好地带出食物本身的特色，同时，为舌尖的回味增添适当的干度和甜度。

因此，无论真爱之酒是什么颜色，只需在其中挑选优质、精细的酒款。抓住现在，与她共享上帝赐予的甘露，体味真爱的天伦之乐。我是红色猫头鹰，一直在这里。
